- If claim is valid and all pertinent documents are present, claim is forwarded to property broker allowing 30 days to submit payment or valid dispute in writing.
- If claim is valid and property broker is still viable and payment is not made, the surety can only issue payment if a judgment is obtained by the claimant.
- If property broker is not responsive, the surety will determine if principal is financially insolvent. If property broker is financially insolvent, the surety will need to publish notice of their insolvency for a period of sixty (60) days.
- After sixty days (60) of publication, payment must be made on all valid claim submissions within thirty (30) days.

The surety fully reserves all of its rights and defenses under the terms of its bond and the applicable laws. This reservation of rights shall remain in full force and effect unless expressly revoked in writing by the surety. Furthermore, please be advised that this correspondence is written for the purpose of investigation and notification only and should not be construed as a promise to pay any claim in whole or in part.
